Dear General

Many thanks to you & yr wife for yr kind & hospitable reception of me at yr Palazzo - I send you copy of Martwina, humble tho' it be - I have been much interested in Frank Chase - I send something for yr wife to read re this present work & a teachy we had about the Sunday we drew & set forth the true principles of the Lord's Day - It is wonderful how you have laid yourself out for others & I trust you may

Please send me yr photograph receive a full reward, both here & hereafter - Do try & keep hold of the Central Truth of Incarnation, for in that way only can we approach the living eternal & true God, & it is for Him & tell us how he is to be approached & worshipped that we may be accepted & not rejected - Mr Frouden Peter has got on his annual? exhibition of Egyptian Antiquities at Wunderriff Alley - I have a v pleasant memory of my 2 days visit to Dorset; adieu for Wunderriff; Too brief alas! - With kindest regards & best thanks to you both I am yr very sincerely Wm Bramley-Moore. B-M
