

as a nation we are more and more getting under the thumb of officialdom huge workhouses, as Carlyle says "pleasantly so called because work
cannot be done in them" Laden built. The officials take care they are kept full & want outlaying from time to time - & then
the money is easily
borrowed too the same of debt &

BRIGHTON.

My dear Sir

You are very good & generous with those splendid volumes &
I should like to have them for reference
and if I find they have not got them I may (with your kind permission) deposit

Now in our Public Library. If of they already are there
I shall give them
in your name to the Home or West Brighton Library.
as the Wire does,
have decided that altho we are to be one Parliamentary Borough. with one waterworks and

one system of drainage.
we are to have 2
Municipalities. 2
areas of Cabs. So that one set of Cabmen
may not be employed
or take a fare outside
his own boundaries

I burden gratefully mention -
Pardon this "grawl"
have to read to a more
confidential them.
I have written to Mr Henty about Wyl down Dawkins & coming to me in August & we may do something
as it is now suggested

That our Natural History Society shall undertake the mapping of all the lith Camps, between the adur & the base ^{river} of which the existence of some is hardly known If this should be done
I shall be posted up with the results, and again thank you
