Dear General Pitt Rivers

I am writing to remind you, as you asked me to do, that the Bazaar for the Nursing is on Thursday next - if you could come I think the people would appreciate it very much -

I was sorry to be unable to accept Mrs Pitt Rivers kind invitation for Bank holiday, but I was away, at Buxton with my father -

I hope next Friday to bring a friend, Colonel Belgrave, to play golf on your links -

Mr Wix, of Abberton has given a capital present to your bazaar stall in the shape of 18 walking sticks, cut by himself - others have done well in giving things, but we

I have been unable yet to find a nurse, they all seem such "ladies" now I can't do this & that, Mrs Harlow is in communication with one -

yours truly

Edward Acton
