I propose the 2 nights here as you are an invalid & to save you fatigue. I am awaiting your reply. Believe me

My dear Sir

I enclose Mr Henry's reply. which seems to give conditional consent.

Now it seems to rest with you to pay a visit to Highdown & give your ideas
as to what sectional

Cuttings you think would solve the questions you wish to have answered.

Could you come here
stay a night, go over to Highdown with me & Jones return here
for another night
rest or stay at Mr Neutys.

Mr Jones is about to take his fortnight holiday. & I think would like to take it in making these experimental sections.
I rather think Mr Read is away for his holiday. I will find the funds. if you will give your

P.S. I think it would be a pity to attempt the work until the Harvest is over, as "the laborers are few, & the agricultural lads have drifted away to Worsham to help build the Christ's Hospital there: but this need not hinder
your visit. Perhaps Mr Tomms. Could begin by making a survey

The Camp to Cal. He seems desirous to do it
