My dear Sir.

Mr Henty has left home for the Anti meet I <sup>will</sup> enclose his last letter later on. Dawkins is here and if it gets a little cooler, we are going over to see the Camp
at Highdown Woodall
later. Yours with me

Mr Wemyss tells me he has found a British Interment. (The first he has found.) I enclose the letter, which please return in enclosed
envelope.

May I ask for your Signature to the enclosed application of a son of a niece of mine

who has been at work in the Public Works department, in one of the bases in Egypt and who wants to be elected a member of
the R G S. - Conway
would have signed it but he is off to Bolivia.
& Mr Goodrick of Mexico
is away also.
I enclose a request
