Oriel Coll

Oxford

June 1. 1886

Dear Sir

The Hebdomadal Council has allotted to me the agreeable duty of inviting you to come down to Oxford at Commemoration for the purpose of receiving the Honorary degree of D. C. L.

I hope that you will be able to accept their invitation. and it will give me great pleasure

if you and Mrs Pitt Rivers will stay with me when you come.

Commemoration day is June 30. but as you probably know the gaieties begin three or four days earlier.

I am Dear Sir.

Yours very faithfully

J B Moore
