Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

I have received your handsome and most interesting fourth volume of Excavations and desire to say that your kindness in presenting me with it, is very much appreciated.

It seems hardly fair to be again

Yours

if you are only distributing the work to active archaeologists, I should be so glad if you could include in the list the name of Mr. David Kennard Wester Hill, Coxheath, Maidstone. He was the owner of those beautiful Anglo-Saxon fibula glass vessels etc sold at Sotheby's some time since and of which you secured the major portion.

Mr. Kennard was the actual investigator and on seeing your volume here last week questioned me as to whether you would be disposed to present a copy to him.

He has just been in again and tells me that he has an Anglo--Saxon Cemetery in East Kent for me to explore thoroughly.

I very much regretted to learn that you were down again but I sincerely hope for a speedy recovery.

Yours very truly

Alfred Pitt Rivers
