

Will you pardon my asking if that time has now come. As I want to get these bound if I can & you have already sent vols 1, 2, & 3. Hoping you will excuse my asking & that you are in better health. I remain

Dear General Pitt-Rivers

Last autumn
you were so very kind as to write & say that when the 4th volume of your great book on Excavations in Cranbourne
Chase was printed
I should have one.
