APPLESHAW,

ANDOVER.

Nov. 29, 1898.

My dear Sir,

I shall be more than grateful for the volumes which you offer me with such great kindness. It will be of extreme interest to be able to study in detail your valuable work of which, of course, I have heard much in general, and your careful records are certain to be most helpful to me in such observations as I am attempting to make in my own near neighbourhood. Labour and speculation are so often wasted for want of knowing what has been discovered and interpreted elsewhere -

The Country close round my house abounds in Roman and pre Roman antiquities, but somewhat curiously I have never come across or had shown to me any distinctively Saxon object in the nearly 20 years of my residence here, though the names of the neighbourhood are Saxon.

My address for parcels is Andover Junction.

Believe me, with many thanks

Yours truly

George Engelheart.
