

gallery and a fairly good show of flints & bronzes.
Our friend Frank, whose death I never cease to lament gave us credit for one of the best ethnol^l-collections in the provinces; but - the work in arrangement! I hope this approach is now removed.

Believe me

Dear Sir

Yours very gratefully

Alfred Wallis.

To

General Pitt-Rivers
&c. &c. &c.

MR. ALFRED WALLIS,
REGENT'S PARK,
EXETER.

L2265

XXXIII. Nov. 1898.

Dear Sir,

I beg to thank you most cordially for your letter (which I only opened this morning) & for the exceedingly liberal offer which you have been so good as to make.

I shall lay both before my Committee, which meets upon the first Tuesday

Yours

In December, & shall, no doubt, be entrusted with the pleasing duty of conveying our vote of thanks to you.

Your splendid volumes will go into good company.
The widow of the late Mr. C.
Fisher of Kings Newton, ^{Catch} left to the City her husband's very well selected library of about 4,000 volumes, chiefly antiquarian & containing many unique copies, such as

Carter's

Carter's own Copies, Illustrated with his original drawings; the Bateman copy of Lysons's Derbyshire, enlarged into four vols. for which Quatrecloix gave £46 at the auction - several "illustrated" County Histories Blores Sepulchral Monuments, with the original drawings and so forth.

Should you, at any time, come to Exeter I shall be most delighted to attend you upon a visit to our collection, we have as perhaps you know a good ethnological Gallery