Dear Sir

When I was at Sturminster a month ago
I was vexed to see the fine Entrance to the Coach-road leading from the bridge to the vicarage sadly neglected. The well-built stone wall & iron gates - ~~which~~ a disgrace. & the fine faced stone thrown over into the ditch. The Town ditch.
I think sewerage. Our fox had been road
I think kept & Newton & Barber

People used to walk right up through ^{on Sundays} ~~to~~ the Church & appreciated Mr Fox's kindness
- now it looks as if no one cares a penny for the useful entrance & ornamental stone & coping - W. G. Parker
