suggested by your note, &
 Hoping that you are well & may have a merry Christmas,
 I am, &c. &c. &c. truly,
 Yr. obedient Servant

I leave here this afternoon

Dear General
 I am much obliged for your note, duly forwarded here.

I shall be very glad indeed to have your vol. iv.

As I am a professional beggar may I remind you your kindness in sending vols. 1 & 2 to our Public Library at Cropton, & I suggest that if you send me 2 copies (to Blampden Rd., Cropton) I will undertake to convey one of them to the said library.

You were also good enough to send a copy of the vols.

to the Hartley Institute, Southampton, & although I am no longer a Southamptonian I keep up an interest in the place, & still send my Phil. Trans. to the N. Inst.

Trusting that you will not prosecute me for writing a begging letter, especially as it is really
