Mr. H. Clayton Manisty
presents his Compliments to General Pitt-Rivers and begs to enclose a Roman coin found last summer (1898) in Silchester Camp. As Mr. Manisty understands that Genl. Rivers is interested in coins & has a splendid Museum at the Larmer Tree (which he hopes to visit) he offers this coin at such sum as Genl. Rivers shall consider a fair value as Mr. Manisty is not a collector
