Sir,

About the middle of December last I asked, I fear thoughtlessly, a London Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries to forward me to you a purpose form for that society, writing you from here asking you to sign it in the second column if so disposed & to return it to me, since what time I have not received the form back again.
I have not written you again until now as I concluded that you were probably absent, but now that so long a time has elapsed I venture to ask you kindly to return the form of
