My dear General

Wurtillet certainly seems to have been very rash in his statements, about the capacity of the Pithecanthropus skull.

As regards the Ecuador Railway Mr Harman was introduced to me by Mr

Bayard who spoke of him in high terms.

As (Hannan) tells me that he is acting with powerful capital here in New York, & I have no reason to doubt it

As however I mentioned to you St George's arrangements have taken the business to a great extent out of our hands.

I have not seen the plans or estimates & regret that under these circumstances I cannot give you any very definite information.

If all goes well
I hope a battle may be
