My dear & kind General How I should be interested & gratified in the living you have so kindly given back and taken possession of the Parsonage-house I must renew my wife & my own thanks for your complacency upon her such a nice & genial sphere I am sure you will find that he will work up prevented by the Perambulation as he was at Beazer and Grandmother. This father Mr Melville in a letter I received yesterday

10 miles. He was in every way the man we wanted. He was not only a strong & able & respectable - I wanted this that you may see that you may depend upon for loyalty & fidelity. This is my third week on duty a most luxurious place scarcely any one on duty has a smile on his face I have just got out the shell of duty which I hope will meet with the approval of the Malacothys I have brought it up to date which was rather difficult as little has been done since Goyne Jeffrey from HOASU on the Continent they have been going a head with some.

Please give our very best regards to Mrs. Bill Ross

I believe me

Ever your affectionate

Edmund Meredith

I will send you the volume as my return home.
