Mr. H. Clayton Manisty
begs to thank Genl Pitt Rivers for his note of the 20th inst:
and while regretting that the Roman coin is of so little value hopes that Genl. Pitt Rivers will add it to his collection.

Mr. Manisty has handed part of Genl. Pitt. Rivers' letter to the Postal Authorities, with whom he was in communication.

If a copy of Genl. Pitt Rivers' Guide to the L. of W. (any old copy would do) can be found, Mr. Menisty would be extremely obliged if it being sent to him at this address and Mr. Menisty hopes to visit Island Royal in the Summer obtain the new Guide.
