May 5th 1899.

Dear General Pitt-Rivers.

I was sorry not to find you, at home, the other day, because I have decided not to allow my son or others belonging to me to shoot on Tollard Green, as you think we have no right. I thought we had two as it is. My son goes to school on Tuesday next. I am very full of business at present but hope to be disengaged on Thursday next should you care to see me. Trusting that you are letter with our united kind regards to Mr. Rivers & yourself.

Believe me

Yours faithfully

R. J. Palmer.
