My dear General Pitt-Rivers
Though it is now
Some years since I had the pleasure of meeting you I am taking the liberty of writing to ask you if you will very kindly and generously present a copy of your works to the reference library of the new Royal Museum at Canterbury, of which I

TELEGRAMS, HONNINGTON
STATION, ADISHAM.

am now the Hon Curator.
We should all be very grateful to you if you would do so: and I know the gift would be much appreciated.
As you may probably not recognize me now that I have changed my name from Evans I may say that my father is Sebastian Evans and my Uncle Sir John Evans.

Of course you know too
my cousin Arthur Evans.
With very kind regards and apologies for troubling you in this way believe me truly yours

Francis Beckett Goldwin
