Nov 11th 1882

My dear Augustus.

I ought to have written to you long ago - but I fancied
that you were abroad.
I wanted to thank you for listening to my recommendations
of Mr Wix, a appointing him to Tisbury

I have not seen him
since he went there,
but I feel sure you
will not regret
having associated him.
The people of Morden
are very sorry to lose him.

I trust you are all

well at Rushmore -
I wish you were not quite so far off.

I am glad to hear they have been able to get into Penrhyn at last,
but now I hear fever
has broken out at Wickham - but I trust not severely.

Yours sincerely
A. Douglas
