Rushmore

June 7/99.

Genl. Pitt Rivers presents his compliments to Sir Richard Taylor and begs to say that J. Gough was in his stables about four years. He was never drunk but once to his knowledge, and then Genl. Rivers sent him away.
He therefore considers him sober, steady and honest, a safe driver in London, a good stableman and kind to horses.

16 EATON PLACE, S.W.

Genl Sir Richard Taylor presents his compliments to Genl.
Pitt Rivers, and will be much obliged if he will give him his opinion as regard a man named J Gough, who applies for a situa-tion as coachman here, & refers to Genl. Pitt Rivers as to character &c. Sir R Taylor would like to know whether this man is steady, sober & honest, a good & safe driver in London streets
