

London, 15 Piccadilly, October 9, 1899

L2425

General Pitt. Rivers

Rushmore

Dear Sir,

You will have heard or read Mr E. H. Reade's address at the Dover Meeting of the British Association on the subject of Anthropology

Your grand work on the early inhabitants of Dorsetshire is justly praised as a model.

You have been very liberal in giving this monumental work to all your friends, some have not failed to sell it.

In the interest of the Anthropological Science, I think, your work ought to be ab.