Dear Payne

I quite expected
a letter from you this morning with a cheque.
I suppose my letter
did not reach you
in time. I leave for Liverpool this morning. Would you
be kind enough to tell Bouverie to send me £ 25

to the Bank of Montreal in Montreal, where I shall be obliged to stay until I get it.
I ask you to let me
have £ 25 because it is the least I
can manage on.
I do hope you will tell Bouverie to send it without delay, I
shall be up a tree

otherwise

Yours Obedt. Son

Richard Stok Pitt
