good education -
I mean to study up
the 'Rhea fibre industry' While I am here and hope, one way or another to get some steady work.

In the mean time I find no difficulty in avoiding those things
not conducive to steadiness.

Dear Father
I could not get away from my Coursing to see you at the Metropole.
I wanted to ask you
if you would pay
my subscription to a club I have joined 'The Piccadilly'

It is a very good modern club and is cheap - up till May 31st - when the subscription becomes £ 10. At present it is only £ 5.

As you have paid
£ 30 for Douglas's Entrance fee for

Arthur's, I thought you would be willing to give me £ 5 for this club which I
join as Country
member -

This canvassing is very tiring and tedious work. I find I am successful and produce
satisfactory results.
It is, at any rate, a
