WHATCOMBE, BLANDFORD.
—AND TELEGRAPH—

My dear General Pitt Rivers

I will gladly cooperate in the scheme you have on your mind. Unfortunately the Tenant Farmer has no cohesion with the patron and proper collaboration - This was conspicuous during the days of strike. On that account I experienced difficulty in arrangement with the farmers who desired
the parish of Wootton between them and act so independently one with the other that the labour of one looks them constant with

WINDSOR BLANDFORD
WANTS
half an hour of making it because the other had made a much higher bid and unknown to his brother tenant.

I have to be in Dorchester tomorrow and will try to see the Mayor if has occurred to me since writing to him the Asaph Theatre is in the jurisdiction of the Justices of Cornwall.

I regret to find my deception in law instead going to Templecombe
tomorrow -

I remain
Yours very truly
N. Mansel-Pleydell
