

is a little side room
now in the drawing room. which I should have tried to coax
you to give them if you had been here!! They were with us last week furnishing.

Believe me

Mr Genl Pitt Rivers

I fear we shall be unable to come over to lunch on Saturday - as my husband must be at the Board of Guardians - but we shall hope - if fine, to drive over to the Larne oak - about
tea time - as you

Kindly propose - & see you:
We have been at most daily hoping you wd turn up
about the digging
& directly the way is cut & the ground shows
signs of brown limestone I shall put in pegs to mark it out: if you are not already here!

We have had two visitors who were most deeply interested in
it. Mr Bellows of Gloucester - who named several pieces of the pottery "Caistor ware"
etc for me - & Mrs Joyce - widow of the Mr Joyce - who excavated Filchester - & knows all about
"digging".
The "Cottage" is getting lovely -
All it wants is
