BRANKSOME DENE,
BOURNEMOUTH.

Dec. 2nd -

County Asylum but of course he cannot be kept long there.

His wife is dying of Consumption at her Father's House and some neighbours have kindly helped to take the children

Lady Antrim is desiring a little fund to provide for the wants (as far as possible) of the poor Parents and children be my request to General Pitt Rivers if he would contribute to it -

My Dear Lady Antrim
I am very sorry to hear of the illness of your Pitt Rivers and hope he will come here for troubling him with a letter but she is very anxious to mention to him I am of great distress which has come under her notice. The man Frank

Andrew by name ~~etc~~ Lady Aukin understood was Carter to General Pitt Rivers until relieved by bad health to give up his place. Carter Aukin found him in the Herbert Home at Bournemouth in a very suffering state and as he has obliged to leave that place (as his time there had expired) and was quite unable to return to his cottage Lady Aukin gave him an order for leaving College Hospital in London (he has now been discharged as incurable) per that hospital (he was kept 6 weeks there) - Lady Aukin has through an order per Lord Dipby had him admitted temporarily into the Dorset
