shd feel greatly obliged to you.

I regret to say that our List of Prehistoric Monuments for Dorset, which is being compiled by your suggestion through the Field Club makes slow progress.

Believe me, Sir—

To You Pitt Rivers. F.R.S.

Sir
I write to ask you if you wd kindly give me suggestions from your own observations or references where I may find them on the subject of the Appreciation or the reverse of natural Scenery by native Races, or put in other words, the Influence of Scenery on the inhabitants of various countries.

My reason for thus troubling you is that during the past Autumn I have been giving a course of lectures on "the Origin of Scenery" a somewhat geological subject, and the Committee of the Universities Settlement at Toynbee Hall

in Whitechapel have asked me to give these lectures again.

It seems to me the subject is enlarging as one thinks about it, and one day at the County Museum at Dorchester Mr. Marshall, our Curator, suggested an interesting aspect of the matter in this direction.

If you could kindly find time to
