

will be out this week & which I feel sure will interest you as it contains such a large number of facts and discusses some important principles
in a rather new way.
Will you give my kind regards to Mr Pitt Rivers and believe me -

Yours very truly

Dear General Rivers.

The reason why
your kind letter has not been answered before is that I have been unwell I have in fact been in bed some days with an attack of measles which I can assure you is a most uncomfortable <sup>(feeling)</sup> for a grown up person to have. I need not say how much I should like to come and see you and to see under your guidance those Graves and mounds

and pits of Dorsetshire which have such an interest for me, but I have a double difficulty.
<sup>The</sup> first difficulty is that as Parliament is sitting and we have so many and such aggressive

opponents to face that it may be impossible for me to get away at the time you mention.

The other is that you live so far from the station that I don't see how I am to get to you unless you can send for me.

I have finished my book on the manuscripts which
