Hants.

My dear General.

There is a big
tombstone in old Tappin Church Yard, ⁱⁿ the base of it being Christian graves. It is 15 ft. in height about 7, 20 ft. across the top, & 240 feet in encampment around

base.

Mr Rutland (sec. to Bedn. Archael. Loc.)

has got permission to open it & consulted
me. I caused a true N. + S. line to be marked as far as possible & a trench 6 ft. wide
to be cut in this direction & to commence work this week. On Monday I go over
with several others and see how things are doing. If you can come & leave to do so we should be very glad to see you.

Flint flakes, pottery & part of a bone awl(?)
have been found in the Church Yard. The tree is the "Bury"
tree, the pond near
has been (traditionally) used for baptising heather dawns! So
there is plenty of
