Dear Sir

Hillside
Winborne
October 8th

I must apologize for troubling you as I scarcely like to do so: I have been asked to collect £60 as soon as possible for a genuine case of deep distress. A married couple with a young family have lost all their money through specious losses and the failure of the Oriental Bank, the husband having been obliged to give up his est-pointment on account of the after effects of Influenza having affected his brain and caused total loss of memory, and now that they have lost their money they are highly penitent, and unless I can succeed in getting kind hearted people to give me the above sum, everything that they have left will have to be sold to pay the debts entirely caused by illness and through no fault of their. It is truly melancholy a sad case and one in which everybody must sympathize and I am most anxious to do all in my power to help, much as I dislike for money. I shall be so glad if you will kindly send me a donation towards this good object, as I can assure you by doing so, you will be doing a great act of charity and kindness, so I trust you will not refuse my appeal, as I am grateful
