Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

I have acted on your note by sending in your name as a subscriber
to the Manx Note Book, which you will get in due time. It is, I think nine shillings a year,

but that you will know
from the publisher.

I am looking forward to seeing your work which will certainly throw great light on one of the darkest periods of the history of Britain.

Hoping that you are much better for the baths, I am
yours truly

W. B. Dawson

P.S. We only got our Bill through the House by yielding some of our points. -
