

Days with us & visit some of the Wiltshire antiquities which please us very.
The Moot. Britton & Edington Church. We shall be at home for a few days together after Sat. Dec. 11th of that time sent.

Believe me
Sincerely yours

John Sarsum

General Pitt-Rivers

Answer

Palace,
Salisbury.

Nov. 2 1886

My dear General Pitt-Rivers

I have much pleasure in sending you the accompanying little book containing a note on the St.
Beckersmet Stone p. 24. <sup>Bridgetts</sup> It is about 5 miles South of St. Bees) and some other notes (originally intended for the use of Prof. Emil Häberer) which may be of interest to you.
If you I must ask you to be kind enough to return it to me by Christmas time - but your secretary will probably have to copy anything out of it that may interest you before that.

L258

The stones have almost all been copied on the spot by myself.

I was interested in seeing Fret's workshop at Norwood & took Lady Salisbury & others to see him. I think seeing him some other models & Lady Salisbury is inclined to help him to use some simple colours that please her. He seems to have a natural instinct of taste.

I managed to see the little chapel at Hefeldham. It is rather a good deal used still.

I hope that you & Mrs Pett Rivers will come & stay a few