WOLFETON HOUSE
DORCHESTER.

My dear General,

So very many
thanks for yr. kind
letter just received -

We shall be only too
delighted to leave
ourselves altogether in your hands and if you will give me 2 or 3 or better still 4 weeks <sup>notice</sup> ~~time~~ 1

is popular - When you come I should like to work you hard &
get you to read the paper twice at 3 & 8
as we get two different audiences at those hours, but if you refuse to be overworked, then we would only ask you to read it at 3 P.M.

Yours very truly
Albert Bankes

beforehand so that I can advertise your lecture;
anytime will suit us,
only I rather hope you
will choose a time
when the days are
long enough for Mrs Pitt Rivers & yourself to go &

see Cape Castle with me
the day after the lecture so when you do come

I hope you can spare
us three nights -

I enclose you a notice
of our next afternoon
lecture - wish that I think for one moment
you would care to come
so far for it, but just
to show you the sort of thing that I find
