

Reading. I am a- hope the road will help clear up the doubt about the true site of Vinograd which I never could and myself believe is Quincy (W.D.M.)

I remain

Yours truly

WHATCOMBE, BLANDFORD.

My dear General Pitt Rivers
I particularly seized the opportunity of placing your name upon the former Committee subject because to you especially your opinion will be valuable as to the site I have known no lines of communication with the outside world by a sort of Cal. 2. way from the interior knowing incidentally a judge in map of the area of which I have of course much will depend

Whatcombs
upon the amount of subscriptions, but a sealed paper is a conspicuous part of our (only) true record remained. There who know him & for the
the influence of putting in form of a real Draft Worthy.

I have had another long ride north in search of the remains road through Hopefield Charleston & Buckles.
We have now quite sufficient evidence of the direction of the road in from Hadley to the neighborhood of New stead. Can it be traced to ~~the~~ Wood-put? I feel no doubt but the road will be traced to both though some relation between them. I wish might be least for the old man Sawyer

of the N.W. side of the County. I hope before I leave home next week to be able to send you a statement of the road from between J. H. H. &
