

have already been received. We propose to carry on the Magazine at the very smallest expense. It will only be 64 pages, and once a month.

Your Obedient Servant

~~Murphy~~

Perthshire Advertiser
and Strathmore Journal.

ESTABLISHED 1829.

Perth 9th Aug 1884.

Dear Sir

I have been requested by the promoters of the Antiquarian Review to send you the enclosed papers in the hope that you will become a Shareholder of the little Company also a Director if agreeable. It is not proposed to start the Magazine till Xmas and then only if a sufficient number of subscribers is obtained to cover the cost of production. We have first-rate prospects in London and the Editor Mr Gomme is well known among the Antiquarians there. Several very substantial offers have