The Manor House,
Clifton,
Bristol.

Sept 29 87

Dear General Pitt-Rivers
Sir John Maclean
has lit upon a Roman Villa at Tockington Park Farm, near Alveston, about 2½ miles from Thornbury, & 3½ from Patchway station. ^{all is glauconite.} This he is anxious to show to you, & has asked me to write to you about it - I have not yet seen it, however.

I gather that it is an extensive one, & that Sir John has found portions of more than one tesselated pavement, but few or no ^{movable} objects of interest - The pavements will have to be covered up in the course of a few weeks, as they lie

in a cattle yard

Believe me

Yours faithfully
John Beddoe
