

(L42)

17. Robertson Terrace
Hastings

Dec<sup>r</sup> 9. 82

Dear Sir,

You may probably have heard that some Brief Memoir of the late Professor Robertson, is about to be published by his friends Prof. Turner of Edinburgh, and Prof<sup>r</sup> Goldwin Smith;

I venture to ask if you can help M<sup>rs</sup>. Rolleston in her desire to obtain from Friends, any Letters, or Personal Recollections, they may be able to contribute towards the Memoir now in progress, or towards a later volume, which she hopes to put together of Reminiscences, chiefly interesting to her own Family, and intimate Friends.

Any Letters, or other material you are so good as to entrust me with, will be carefully returned, copies, or extracts from them, having been made as you may direct.

Yours Truly

M. F. Rolleston

address Miss M. F. Rolleston