My dear General

I send herewith to you to look at, & to pass on to Prof: Flower, the photos from Flinders Petrie's wonderful series of casts. They should have been sent earlier, but were retained until I had finally heard from the British Museum whether they would accept the originals (thinking that some body might want to see these <sup>photos</sup> before deciding)

It is I think, practically settled in their favor, the only provision now, being that in the judgment of their men the castles can be adequately hardened to resist the effects of exposure.

They have a capital place allotted to them, in that event.

Very faithfully yours

Francis Galton

General Pitt-Rivers FRS
