

Ann

2486

CHETTLE,
BLANDFORD.

Sunday May 6. 1888

CHETTLE

1888

Dear Genl. Pitt Rivers

This afternoon my Keeper with a companion being on the look out caught two men searching the boundary fence between your ground and mine - Justly made in a line drawn from the Gipsy School - The ledge I claim belongs to you - one man was on my side - the other on yours - The one on my side did nothing on his - the one on yours on my Keeper getting at him threw down 3 Partridge Eggs - I fear

I am unable to sustain the Prosecution - for my Judge will not see any thing taken on my side

The person on your side was the oldest son of Brine late a Farmer of Gussage a Dendurton that you forgave rather than let Brother last year - The son on my side was Kinke who was detected last year by my former Keeper on the mons earnest application I gave him - Now if Aspittle I shall finish both -

I have no desire to give you trouble or sue myself I have - If you sanction it and can refer me to your local Magistrate <sup>or Agent</sup> - I will undertake with trouble of you -

I think you will your family are now the worse for this long Judge's winter

Believe me
Faithfully yours
W. B. G. J. P.