WHATCOMBE,
BLANDFORD.

Sept. 9. 1804

Dear General Pitt. Rivers

There is a sad act of Vandalism going on just now in the Parish of Tarrant Keyham
Some of the old Roman work in the Parish is being removed by order of the Surveyor to repair the neighbouring Highways. Henry Fitzhugh begins the Vandal work (I am told) at Sarisbury.

Park about 3 years ago for the same purpose the road is well marked at Tarrant Street but is now situated at ~~the~~ ~~corner~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~road~~ I think perhaps you justify an (inquiry) under the provisions of ancient monuments Act will enable us to erect these people useful at of destruction. Importance I am on the side of staying in Sutherland otherwise I would side over to the spot and communicate with the official. I trust as may be true to some some of this relic of the Roman occupation is justified. We received Mr Pitt-Rivers & you good money though Charles from. If we had been allowed a little more time we should have visited the Iron works.

 Woburn & the Green will visit the North Division
