

(L 59)

British Museum.

Dec. 18.th '92

Dear Sir,

In answer to your enquiries about the small terra cotta figure you had of me I beg to say that it was stated
to have come from Mycenae

You may have noticed similar ones in the Schlieman collection at S. Kensington.

It is supposed to be a ^{figure} figure of a fate, or, of Minerva.

I am Sir

Yours obediently
Wm. Salbot Peake