

I shall be pleased to send them up. I should prefer before leaving England again to see them housed in such a collection, where they can be seen & compared.

Yours faithfully,
Osbert. H. Howarth.

Dear Sir,

I understand from Mr. Tylor that in offering the Azorean "Disciplinas" for your museum at Oxford

I have proposed somewhat too high a value for them.

I was, as I said, rather at a loss how to value them at all: but if you care to have them for, say, £5,
