Dear Sir

It was with great regret that I received your letter this morning saying that you would be unable to fulfil your promise to read a paper at the Liverpool Congress. As I did not hear from you, I could not help it appearing among the promised 'agenda'.

Is there any hope, that even if you cannot come yourself, that you could still send a paper, which could be read at the meeting.

We had looked forward to the criticisms of so valuable and important an authority as yourself.

I remain
Yours faithfully
Linnelust
