

notice; that we leave the matter in your hands, as to the permanency of the arrangement; by agreeing to allow you to pass so long as you allow us.

If Mr^{rs} Castleman agrees, she is going to let my solicitor know, & he will then draw up a short draft of agreement. I hope this will be satisfactory to you.

As to the rights through your woods in my wood; so long as you will allow me convenient routes, & not raise question of right; I have no desire to do so.

I write this in haste, being off tomorrow
to Ceylon.

Very Truly Yours
Henry R. Farquharson

Dec: 1st/1888.

2601

1/12/1888

NEAREST TELEGRAPH OFFICE
& STATION
BLANDFORD
NEAREST TELEGRAPH OFFICE
& STATION
BLANDFORD
6 MILES

EASTBURY PARK, BLANDFORD.

My dear General.

I am in receipt of your further letter as to the new road.
I will adhere to my original offer, & pay half on my own land. The road is in your particular convenience.

I have seen Mr^{rs} Castleman, & I believe she is agreeable, on the following terms.

You can go through her field, & so long as you allow her & her tenants on your road, you can go ^{across} her land.

The same applies to me. No rights are given on either side, & you will 1602

171 Hemingford Rd
London.
N.

3rd Dec. 88

General Pitt-Rivers,
Sir,

Enclosed

I beg to hand you my af.
Yours truly
F. W. Reader