10th Dec. 88

General Pitt-Rivers,

Sir,

In reference to your enquiry as to what evidence I have of your having agreed to give me 2 months notice. I have no such agreement written by you.
I never thought that such a thing would be necessary, thinking your word as a gentleman sufficient guarantee. But I have the evidence of your secretary, Mr. James, who also told me when I joined you "that a two months notice on either side was required in case of leaving, this he again corroborated at the time of my leaving. As a further proof that this has been a general understanding, Mr. Loukins has the same in writing.

I remain, Sir,

Yours truly,
F. W. Reader

Gen. Pitt-Rivers.
