

(L613)

WHATCOMBE, BLANDFORD.

Dec. 23. 1854

Dear General Pitt Rivers

Many thanks
for your very kind invitation on the 21st which I must hardly accept. It will be a great pleasure to meet the eminent and loyal who you will attend. My life has been for so long a secluded one I shall all the more enjoy the opportunity to visit you with the evidence of the evidence

WHITING
LONDON

of their chief substantives of nature are best situated herewith in a warmer
water as soon as the present day. Within your Pitt-River yourself a happy Christmas - happy New Year. Yours

Yours very truly

J. M. M. - M. M. M.