Dear Pitt Rivers

I stupidly quite forgot to ask you, when at Rushmore whether you had (as I know you intended) a dairy instructor and dairy shop, last season at Sturminster, and if so, how it answered, and whether the farmers took it up, and made good use of the opportunities which you so kindly gave them of improving their dairy goods —

I hope Mrs. Pitt Rivers is some the wiser for the exercise of so kindly entertaining me, for I fear she has hardly yet recovered her late illness.

Yours sincerely

Richard Glynn
