

on Dorset topography & local antiquities in forma cessible & the acceptance article public like myself.

I had hoped to have before long This request to go personally at the Salisbury meeting of the Archaeological Institute last August - but I was unfortunately prevented from reaching Salisbury by the failure of the train at Rushmore -

I may add that I was fortunately able to present the manuscript to the Librarian <sup>before left Dorset</sup> last month with a duplicate copy of the 2nd edition of Chapin's "Anecdotes" which is I believe the subject

I am obliged - with many apologies to the Librarian I have now enclosed

I beg faithfully to remain
Yours truly
A. H. Hall

(2648)

4, HARCOURT BUILDINGS,
TEMPLE, E.C.

14 Nov: 1889

Mr. Gould (the Librarian at Dorchester) I enclose you when I was at the last quarter a reprint of Chapin's "Anecdotes of Dorsetshire" which you had presented to the

4. HANCOCK BUILDING

Museum Library. I saw that Ellis took <sup>of Paternal Row</sup> some public. to any calling at his office this afternoon I found that it was not possible to obtain copies of the work except through yourself, as you had <sup>sent</sup> printed & private circulation only. As a collector of Dutch books I am most anxious to add your volume to my library - and it is the difficulty that I see in obtaining a copy that emboldens me to write that you will you could spare me one?

I can assure you I should much prize it.

I hope you will pardon me for expressing a wish that you would publish your various papers