

TELEGRAPH
IWERNE MINSTER

Dictated

(L659)

Ranston, Blandford.

February 4th 191

My dear General

Talbot thinks it would be a pity for us not to have something to show you when you come to see the Roman Villa, so at his suggestion, we have got permission from Mr.
Roberts, to hurdle off a small part of the ground,

Monday is the first day
that Talbot can come and act clerk of the works